

(Annexed Table) Department of Dryland Science / Admission Policy : Relationship between Selection Method and Required Ability

Admission Method and Selection Method	General Entrance Examination First(Second) Period		Member of Society Entrance Examination		Special Entrance Examination		Entrance Examination for October Admission		Entrance Examination for October Admission (Pre-arrival Admission)
	Application Procedures (Includes Essay, Academic Transcript etc)	Oral Examination	Application Procedures (Includes Essay, Academic Transcript etc)	Oral Examination	Application Procedures (Includes Manuscript of Oral Examination Presentation, Academic Transcript etc)	Oral Examination	Application Procedures (Includes Manuscript of Oral Examination Presentation, Research Proposal, Academic Transcript etc)	Oral Examination	Application Procedures (Includes Manuscript of Oral Examination Presentation, Research Proposal, Academic Transcript etc)	Oral Examination
Admission Policy
Those who have achieved expertise and skills equivalent to those in the undergraduate course on dryland science	◎	○	◎	○	◎	○	◎	○	◎	○
Those who aim to obtain a broad perspective and deep knowledge of global and local issues in the creation of a sustainable society	◎	◎	◎	◎	◎	◎	◎	◎	◎	◎
Those who aim to contribute to the creation and development of a sustainable society by acquiring high ethical standards		◎		◎		◎		◎		◎
Those who aspire to acquire communication skills to collaborate with other fields in order to create a sustainable society, taking advantage of their respective expertise in dryland science		◎		◎		◎		◎		◎
Those who desire to contribute by themselves to solution of issues that minority group and people under severe environment are facing, understanding diversified natural environment, culture, and values	○	◎	○	◎	○	◎	○	◎	○	◎

◎ : Much Applicable    ○ : Applicable